CONFERENCE INFORMATION

This conference provides an opportunity for HIV-positive women to take time out from their busy lives and focus on their health and wellness. Experts will present various workshops on living well with HIV and promoting health and wellness in all aspects of life. In addition to workshops, women will have the opportunity to share experiences with other women living with HIV, all in the context of a supportive and relaxing environment.

There is no cost to attend this conference. The conference is open to women who are living with HIV/AIDS in MN.

Transportation

Bus tokens will be available to women on Sunday morning. If you have additional transportation needs, please indicate on your registration and we will contact you. We will reimburse mileage for women traveling from Greater Minnesota up to a certain dollar amount.

Childcare Funds

Limited funds for childcare will be available upon request. Please note that requests must be made at the time of registration only.

Children are not allowed at the conference at any time, and there is no on site childcare area, contact the Network Vice Chair for details.
